

Application for Oral Defence of the Comprehensive Portfolio

This form is to be completed when the supervisor, doctoral committee members and doctoral student consider the Comprehensive Portfolio ready for examination. The form is to be completed by the supervisor on behalf of, and in consultation with, the doctoral committee and doctoral student.

The external examiner is a designated faculty member from one of the participating universities who is situated in the student's field of study (FOS). The external examiner may be a designated faculty member at the student's home university and is at arms-length from the doctoral student (e.g., not a current or former research partner/research assistant, teaching assistant, instructor or personal acquaintance).

Students, supervisors and members of the doctoral committee may consult the Associate Dean or Chair of Graduate Studies if there is a difference of opinion between about the readiness of the Comprehensive Portfolio for the oral examination.
